Get Out the Vote 2025: Tomorrow is Election Day!

Tuesday is Election Day: Tomorrow communities all over Minnesota will be heading to polls to vote in local elections, and a lot is at stake for our industry!

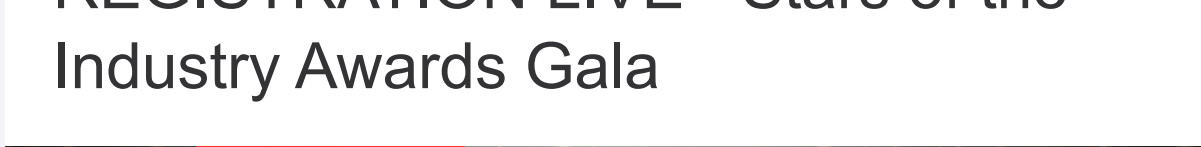

Why it matters: While no federal or state elections are being held tomorrow, local elections still have major influence on the hospitality industry and our capacity to thrive.

- What's at stake: Candidates across Minnesota have various stances on policies that impact our industry, including lodging taxes, tourism funding allocations, and more.

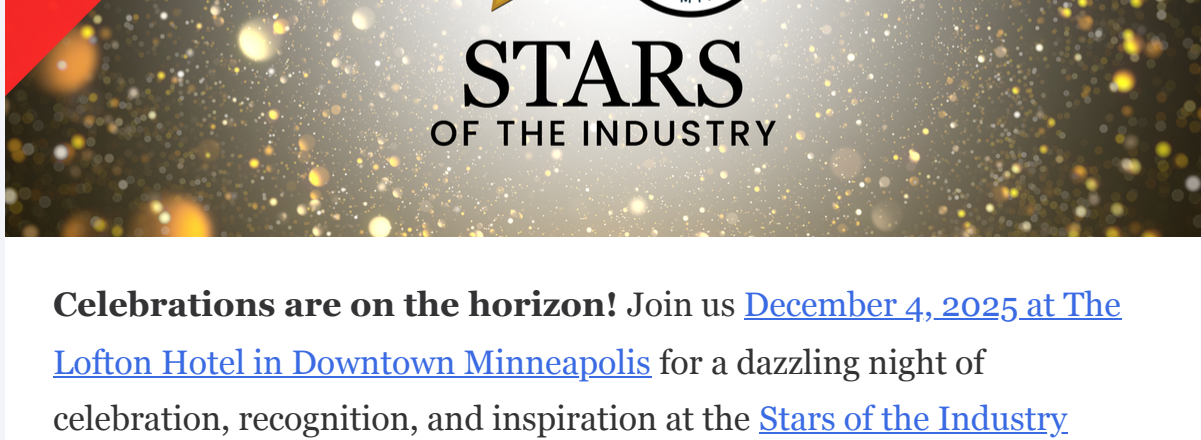

How you can help: Look up information about how to vote on the Minnesota Secretary of State's election database.

- Yes, and: Prepare your operations to accommodate voting time for your team members looking to participate in Election Day!

Experience Significant Visibility with Hospitality Minnesota Advertising and Sponsorship Packages

Maximize Your Visibility: If you're interested in advertising with us or sponsoring one of our newsletters in the new year, we suggest you reach out to our team as soon as possible indicating your interest.

- Why the urgency? After a successful year this year, we anticipate that our limited 2026 Q1 and Q2 advertisement options will fill up fast in the coming weeks!

New in 2026: Throughout 2025, we prioritized advertising members over non-members. Next year, members will be able to purchase advertising and publication sponsorships at a much lower rate than non-members.

Go deeper: Learn more about our available ad and publication sponsorship options for both non-members and members here.
